

Queen Anne High School - Skills, Learning & Careers Festival

Wednesday 10 January 2018, 4.00 – 6.00pm

Dining Hall, Queen Anne HS

All S1-S6 pupils, parents/carers, school leavers and the wider school community are invited to attend. This event will be of particular interest to current S3 and Senior Phase pupils (S4, 5 & 6) to assist with course choices and career planning for next session and beyond.

Representatives from higher and further education, business, training providers, youth groups and voluntary organisations will give expert advice and guidance on all aspects of post-school planning.

Free to attend, no booking required – just drop in!

Free bus passes home for pupils who would usually travel home by school bus (available on the night from Mr Sinclair).

Organisations attending so far include:

Skills Development Scotland www.skillsdevelopmentscotland.co.uk

Our school careers advisers will be available to advise on all aspects of career planning.

Student Awards Agency for Scotland www.saas.gov.uk

SAAS will give advice on all aspects of funding and finance arrangements for session 2018/19.
